Dear Diary

With pen in hand, we acclaim this volume of the 1960 Spectator, an accumulative product of our memorable high school days. Through this book we hope that the long, winding road to the top of the heap, so to speak, might at last come into view by the critics of these bound leaves of fact and truth.

We know the time is near to leave behind our circles of friends and acquaintances that we have made over the past years. And so, we offer this, a diary, as a "parting word" to you, our most precious Alma Mater. May we, first of all...

... Give Due Appreciation ...

Without the guidance of Mr. Harry Cooper, Mr. Ivanhoe Winemiller, and Mr. Don Abbott Thomas, this yearbook would have remained unfinished. By devoting their own time and effort, these three have shown us, the staff, the why's and how's of preparing our book. With this framework we started our volume. If at any time for any reason we needed assistance, they were always available to solve our problems.

Mr. Cooper worked to train the editors in their jobs. The art staff headed by Mr. Thomas created, adding art work to our picture story. Under the capable hands of Mr. Winemiller, our class prospered. The business end was his job and he saw to it that ends met. The finances which really presented problems were soon ironed out by him.

Thus to our advisors who made this production possible we extend a hearty "thank you."

... and Deserved Dedication ...

MRS. GENE L. SHEFFER

To you, Mrs. Sheffer, the Class of 1960 proudly dedicates its yearbook. We trust this is a token of the gratitude from us for the understanding and the patience you have showered upon us.

Your devotion to the Beacon and interest in school affairs have made you a friend and an advisor. As a teacher you instructed us to the best of your ability and affixed within us the desire to learn. Your willingness to help wherever your services were needed shall always be remembered by us.

In these few words we hope that you can sense the appreciation and respect we feel you deserve.

Adminis

... to Those of Higher ...

DR. HARRY SHENK

B.A. — Dickinson College

M.A. — Gettysburg College

D.Ed. — Pennsylvania State University.

I should like to share with the members of the graduating class the thought of the motto, "Hats off to the Past; Coats off to the Future." For, graduation is truly a vantage point from which to evaluate the Past, and plan the Future.

In the past, your parents, friends, teachers, and the community have made possible your public education. We hope that your attitude to them is one of respect, so that you can truly say, "Hats off to the Past."

Your future must be planned to include a reasonable amount of success. And, to have your success equal your ambitions will require work. Approach the future then, with determination to succeed and with spirit implied in "Coats off to the Future."

I congratulate the members of the graduating class, wish them success, and challenge them with, "Hats off to the Past; Coats off to the Future."

Harry H. Shenk

... Degree and Wisdom ...

"You'll learn!" These words have often been spoken to you, and perhaps you have used them in speaking to others. Usually, they are spoken at a time in which the bearer is not doing what the speaker considers to be the best way of action, and, thereby carries a note of disgust or disappointment.

To you the graduating class, we say, "You'll learn." This time we are not saying these words in disgust, but as a challenge. During your years with us, we have taught you certain fundamentals and truths. As these facts are applied to life, you will learn life's lessons. Our main concern is that you should choose the better things in life. To aim high and fail is better than to aim low and succeed.

May your learning not only bring happiness and satisfaction to you, but also improve the society of which you are a part. Best wishes!

Clair A. Trout

MR. CLAIR TROUT
B.S. — Elizabeth College
M.Ed. — Western Maryland.

Mr. Trout and Dr. Shenk confer in the office.

Heindel, Robert Landis, Norman Reber. THIRD ROW: W. Clair Warner, George Goodling, Daniel Godfrey, Daniel Meyers, Edwin Adams, Philip Rojahn, Lawrence Hartman.

With those who deserve due appreciation are the members of the Board of Education. The Board has guided us in our high school education.

The Board of Education meets once every month to discuss the matters at hand. Although they are seldom recognized for their duties, their service is an invaluable one. Each member gives his time and devotion voluntarily.

*Sincerely
Jan. 2 1961*

January, 1960

... in the remaining chapters of this accumulative work, we wish to show that our leisure hours were not misspent in the various activities which have become a part of us during the last three years.

In that which follows, we want to draw the reader's attention to the fact that we were all once quite young in thoughts and deeds as the pictures show, but we also want you to realize that we have grown into class leaders and perhaps the future leaders of tomorrow.

In order that you too may share our experiences, we have assembled them here for your enjoyment.

Thus, we close a chapter that we hope will lay a foundation for many more happy and prosperous ones. In this way, we hope to bring ...

W

E, the class of 1960, of Dallastown Area High School, of Dallastown, Pennsylvania, being of sound mind and body, do make this our last will and testament, hereby cancelling and making void all previous wills by us heretofore made. As our time of parting from these treasured halls of learning draws nigh, we wish to leave to those who will spend future years in high school, these many cherished belongings, opportunities, and pleasures.

The following we do bequeath:

- I, Brenda Ahrens, leave my first seat in the first row of every class to Ray Zeigler.
- I, Patricia Ahrens, leave my job as circulation manager of the yearbook to anyone who likes to run around.
- I, Sandra Alwine, leave my seat in our gravy math class to whoever likes to make and fly paper airplanes.
- I, Sharon Alwine, leave my world literature books to anyone who can stand to read them.
- I, Stanley Baker, leave my coveralls to James Raffensburger in the agricultural class.
- I, Sterling Baker, leave my seat on the baseball bench to anyone who can keep it warm.
- I, Terry Barley, leave my comb to Bill Forbes.
- I, Jolene Barshinger, leave my sax to anyone who can play it.
- I, Joyce Becker, leave my shorthand letters to anyone who can read them.
- I, I. Robert Bentzell, leave my shop apron to Ray Zeigler.
- I, Romaine Blessing, leave my bright smile for Monday mornings to Kathy Ness.
- I, Beatrice Bowman, leave my seat in homeroom to the person who likes to get "u's."
- I, Wayne Bupp, leave my goofing off in select chorus to Mark Innerst.
- I, Gene Burk, leave my seat in Money and Banking to whoever can stay awake.
- I, Dorothy Cox, leave my seat in Spanish and French class to Ben Foust, in hopes that she has the intestinal fortitude to endure such a farce.
- I, Judith Dahr, leave my headaches with the yearbook to some deserving junior.
- I, Lynda Daugherty, leave my "u's" from Mr. Berger to Doris Wise.
- I, Michael Deardorff, leave my "nose-pains" — procured in gym class — to anyone stupid enough to put his nose in front of flying elbows and knees.
- I, Richard Deardoff, leave my seat in band to anyone who is lucky enough to possess it.
- I, Diane Decker, leave my seat during P.O.D. tests to anyone who can pass them.
- I, Guinivere Dehoff, leave my seat in Spanish to any Christian.
- I, Patricia Delp, leave Mrs. Waltman's dictations to whoever can keep up with her.
- I, Ronald De Vono, leave my uncanny ability to get into "jams" at school to anybody who wants to have fun.
- I, Milner Dise, leave my gravy art class to any nut who thinks he can draw.
- I, George Druck, leave my hair brush to Terry Fix.
- I, Joyce Dubbs, leave my seat in French to anyone who can keep a "straight face."
- I, Luther Eberly, leave my "u's" in Mr. Berger's room to any classman who is "lucky" enough to get in his homeroom.
- I, Patricia Eberly, leave my front seat in French class to anyone who can get away with sleeping during class period.
- I, Galen Ehrhart, leave my parking space to Darryl Behrenson for his hot motor scooter.
- I, Keith Ehrhart, leave nothing; I am taking it all with me.
- I, Llewellyn Ehrhart, leave my too frequent trips to the office to Dick Dietz.

. . . of Our School . . .

- I, Phillip Emenheiser, leave my space in the cafeteria line to any student who thinks food is worth waiting for.
- I, Kathryn Eppley, leave my shorthand notes to anyone who can read them.
- I, S. Douglas Eveler, leave my Model A Ford to anyone who can put it back together again.
- I, Diane Ferree, leave my sessions with Mr. Stein to Judy Hamburger.
- I, Phyllis Fink, leave my transcription book to anyone who can read it.
- I, Linda Fitz, leave my interesting seat in office practice to anyone who will use it as well as I did.
- I, Judith Folkenroth, leave my eating in bookkeeping to other kids who are always hungry.
- I, Nancy Foust, leave one-half of all my freckles to any pallid person who wants a tan.
- I, Betty Fox, leave my unimpressible P.O.D. classes to anyone who craves Democracy.
- I, Gary Geesey, leave my seat in physics to anyone with an electronic brain.
- I, Joan Geesey, leave my daily twenty-yard dash for the bus to Audrey Hoke.
- I, Ray Geesey, just leave!
- I, Willard Germick, leave my loose-fitting gym trunks to anyone who has a fifty-inch waistline.
- I, Sandra Glatfelter, leave my original copy of my recently published book, Hooking School Can Be Fun, complete with illustrations to Karen Lubischer.
- I, Donald Godfrey, leave my young, talented, ambitious, and handsome homeroom teacher to any underclassman who is lucky enough to get him.
- I, Kenneth Godfrey, leave my starting center position to Mike Conway.
- I, Leonard Grim, leave my locker to anyone ambitious enough to clean it out.
- I, Carol Gross, leave my ability and courage in bus 8 to Lorna Raver.
- I, William Gross, leave my trig book to anyone who likes to play with a slide rule.
- I, Jean Gundlach, leave my brains in physics class to any bird that needs a spare one.
- I, Bernice Hartman, leave my love for the Marines to Linda Bear.
- I, Joyce Hartman, leave my teasing from Mr. Nabors to any girl who's fortunate enough to have him for homeroom.
- I, Nancy Hartman, leave my chemistry locker to any budding young scientist.
- I, Robert Hartman, leave my faith and all the pleasing times I had.
- I, Barry Hengst, leave my flat tires after football practice to anyone with a spare.
- I, Claude Hengst, leave my snakes and pigeons to the language department.
- I, Gary Hess, just leave!
- I, Karen Hildebrand, leave my books to any junior.
- I, Linda Hildebrand, leave my position as business manager of the Beacon to anyone who thinks they don't have work.
- I, Earl Howett, leave my seat in math class to any idiot who wants to learn to operate a slide rule.
- I, Frederic Innerst, leave my tackle position to Walter Myers.
- I, Michael Jackson, leave my height to Billy Basehore.
- I, Jackie Kehr, leave my "u's" from Mr. Berger to anyone who wants them.
- I, Donna Keener, leave my dissection kit in advanced biology to Karen Smith to do a few cut-ups.
- I, Sara Keener, leave my shorthand notes to whoever can read them.
- I, Barbara Keeney, leave my long, cold walks to the bus stop to anyone who likes having cold feet.

. . . Dallastown . . .

- I, Gerald Keeney, just leave!
- I, Paul Kissner, leave my seat in accounting class to anyone who can understand the course.
- I, Mary Klinedinst, leave my co-editorship of the Beacon to Pat Snyder.
- I, Delores Krone, leave my select chorus practice to anyone who likes long hours of singing.
- I, Beverly Krouse, leave my large megaphone to anyone who can carry it around with them.
- I, Darlene Krout, leave all my laughs in class and all my quarrels with classmates.
- I, Linda Lange, leave my part in Mr. Ramsay's Christmas Play to any clown who thinks he can act.
- I, Nelson Leader, leave my street drum to anyone who likes to march.
- I, Gary Lentz, willingly leave my seat in physics class to any Einstein who may be lucky enough to receive it.
- I, Marlin Markle, leave my corner seat in Homeroom 27 to anyone who likes to be bored with weekly class discussions.
- I, Susan McDowell, leave my curly hair to Martha Barshinger.
- I, Sandra Monroe, leave my all my nick-names to Bill Yerger.
- I, Fredric Myers, leave my slide rule computations to any future mathematicians.
- I, Sally Myers, leave my arguments in ethics class to anyone who is brave and smart enough to answer back to Mr. Trout.
- I, Paul Noll, leave my office hours to Bill Yerger.
- I, Terry Orwig, leave my title, "Cam," to anyone stupid enough to want it.
- I, Ruth Overmiller, leave my dissect tools in advanced biology to anyone who has a good stomach.
- I, Carl Raffensberger, leave my job as photographer of the yearbook to any "lucky" camera bug.
- I, Joan Raver, leave my presidency to Tim.
- I, Richard Rollman, leave my seat in math class to anyone who likes to fly paper airplanes.
- I, Michael Rupprecht, leave my top locker at basketball practice to Jerry Snyder.
- I, John Schrader, leave my "Willie the Wildcat's" suit to anyone who likes to hide from people and who doesn't like to be cold at football games.
- I, Mary Schrum, leave my job as squad leader in gym class to someone better qualified for the position.
- I, Leona Sharp, leave my position as one of the shortest girls in the class to anyone who fits the requirements.
- I, Guy Shaw, leave all my books to the next poor kid who takes my place — especially in English class.
- I, Barry Shearer, leave my seat in Trig. class to any one who wants a gravy course.
- I, Jo Shearer, leave my seat in the auditorium to Diane Sherrick.
- I, Phil Sheffer, leave my daily trips to the office to some deserving junior.
- I, Brenda Short, leave my position on the Varsity Cheerleading Squad to anyone who enjoys being hoarse.
- I, Bertha Shoup, leave my shorthand book to anyone who can read it.
- I, Thomas Shuler, leave my seat in P.O.D. to anyone who can keep awake.
- I, Richard Shumaker, leave my seat in physics class to anyone who has a good slide rule.
- I, Harland Smeigh, leave my chest pains to any clown who can take it.
- I, Bonita Smith, leave my back breaking top locker to Janie Myers.

... High.

- I, Linda Smith, leave my color guard boots to anyone who doesn't mind blisters.
- I, Norma Smith, leave my lock in gym class to whoever is lucky enough to find the combination.
- I, Richard Smith, leave all the sleep I don't get to anyone who needs it.
- I, Gloria Snyder, leave my typewriter in transcription class to anyone with flying fingers and a good eraser.
- I, Edwin Snyder, leave my seat in French class to anyone who wants it.
- I, Nancy Snyder, leave my P.O.D. book to Becky Engee.
- I, Richard Snyder, leave all my sports that I didn't succeed in to David Dehoff.
- I, Phyllis Stahl, leave my position on the Spectator staff to any junior that can handle it.
- I, Robert Stein, leave my seat in English class to Jerry Snyder. Poor Jerry!
- I, Virginia Sternbergh, leave the Academic course to my younger brothers in hopes that they'll study.
- I, Randall Strayer, leave my job as track manager to anybody else who might want it.
- I, Suzanne Strayer, leave my temper to anyone who can put up with it in gym class.
- I, Joseph Strobeck, leave my deer hunting trips to Charles Tyson.
- I, Judy Stump, leave my position as head flagtwirler to Ben Foust.
- I, Patsy Swank, leave my seat in "Honor English" class to Doris Markey. I hope she can make it.
- I, Iris Swords, leave my English class with Mr. Cooper to anyone who can stand it.
- I, Carol Tipton, leave my seat in geometry class to anyone who can't stand Mr. Berger's tie.
- I, James Tobin, leave my seat in German class to any good party member.
- I, Virginia Toomey, leave the combination of my locker — 1632 — to anyone lucky enough to get it. (Two kicks on the bottom and two slaps on the top).
- I, Virginia Waltemyer, leave my place in the football marching band to anyone who has the patience to take it.
- I, Linda Wantland, leave my P.O.D. book to anyone who can understand it.
- I, Karen Warner, leave my exercises in gym class to anyone who can stand the strenuous work and the after effects.
- I, Virginia Warner, leave my seat in English class to anyone who doesn't like to talk, smile, and has his work finished.
- I, Sharon Wise, leave my seat in Room 34 to Carole Rothe if she makes it through this year.
- I, Larry Wood, leave all my boring P.O.D. classes to anyone who can stay awake.
- I, Carolyn Zimmerman, leave my seat in French class to any unfortunate person who gets it.
- I, Lois Zimmerman, leave my uncompleted literature assignments to anyone who wants to do them.
- I, Laverne Zorbaugh, leave my seat on bus 18 to whoever appreciates my singing.

We hereby designate the Class of 61 as the sole executors of this Last Will and Testament.

In witness, whereof, we the Class of 60, and also being those forenamed, do subscribe our names and offer our seals this fourth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty.

Dallastown, Dear Alma Mater

*To thee we'll 'ere be true,
All the days we spent here learning
Things both old and new.*

*Looking on the past and future
Prepared to start anew,*

... and a ...

*Oh fond memories will go with us
As we think of you.*

*On this graduation day
So proudly we accept
This diploma of our learning
Things we'll n'ere forget.*

... Welcomed Greeting ...

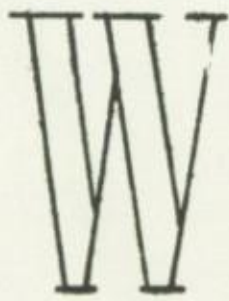

In 1956, we, the Class of 60, entered our first year of high school. As freshmen we soon became acquainted with high school life. At our first class meeting we elected class officers. Luther Eberly was voted president; Beverly Krouse, vice-president; Brenda Ahrens, secretary; and Randall Strayer, treasurer. Mr. Charles Leber served as class advisor. Our activities included hayrides, the freshman assembly, and a trip to Hershey, which climaxed our first high school year.

In the fall of 1957, we, as sophomores, elected Michael Rupprecht, president; Barry Hengst, vice-president; Brenda Ahrens, secretary; and Thomas King, treasurer. Mr. P. Lynn Henry was chosen as our advisor. During this year the class sponsored the Christmas assembly. Our tenth grade was concluded with the annual trip to Hershey Park.

Our junior year began in, what is now, Dallastown Area High School. Many new classmates were added to our class. Also various clubs, organizations, and sports that we had never before known were added to our agenda. At our class meeting we selected Michael Rupprecht as president, Willard Germick as vice-president, John Schrader as secretary, and Thomas King as treasurer. Mrs. Suzanne Fauth and Mr. Charles Landis acted as advisors to our group. In the spring we presented the junior play, entitled "Mother Is A Freshman" under the direction of Mrs. Elaine Brown; and, as was traditional, we accepted the responsibility of the Junior-Senior Prom with the theme, "Southern Plantation." Our very active year was again ended with the annual trip to the "Park."

Our remaining year at Dallastown High proved to be hectic with activities. Many of us had active parts in clubs and sports, the student government, the Beacon, and of course the Spectator. Thomas King was destined to become class president with an able-bodied staff consisting of Llewellyn Ehrhart as vice-president, Fredric Myers as treasurer, and Jeanie Minier as secretary. Mr. I. W. Winemiller and Mrs. Mary Waltman accepted the responsibilities of class advisors. In December we presented the play, "Too Many Girls," with Mrs. Dorothy Richardson as director. Before capacity crowds the play proved to be a success. The crowning of the first Homecoming Queen highlighted the year as Judy Stump, a very pretty senior, reigned over all. In the spring many of us attended the prom arranged by the Junior class. A special conclusion to the senior class was a trip to New York City. On our return Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises were held as we paid our last respects to our Alma Mater, Dallastown Area High.

. . . to the Future . . .

e've reached the close of a chapter,
A chapter we fondly call youth;
We're nearing a section termed adulthood
Of a book justly called "life."

Within the leaflets of this chapter
Are found our carefree years
Of misspent days forever gone,
Erased by the sands of time.

To reminisce page by page revives
Only memories long since forgotten,
That, now remembered, instill within,
Emotions felt but once a lifetime.

School day romances now recurred,
Are merely humorous recollections
Fondly cherished by all who, then,
Experienced deepest feelings and hurt.

Parties given impromptu, dances attended,
Basketball, football, and baseball games,
Won or lost, ignite that spark of memory
Involving only happiness and warmth.

Homework and studies freely administered,
At present thought of as delivered
With discretion by those instructors
Then considered beyond our understanding.

Next we think of friends, gained and lost,
Who have offered various companionships
That, in turn, have given us the insight to judge
Friendship according to its true capacity.

And now, as we approach that section, adulthood,
We leave behind our reminiscences
And thus begin to formulate
This yet unfamiliar chapter.

By creating new, lasting memories,
In hopes that through past experience,
We develop personality and character
Eligible to be recorded in the vast book of life.

Organizations

The Arithmetic Club, under the direction of Mr. Riedel, is intended to bolster the foundation of mathematical education by providing mental discipline in training the thought powers of boys and girls.

During the school year the Art Club made several unusual projects. The club followed what the members were most interested in. Mr. Thomas is the club advisor.

Under the direction of Mr. Stein the members of the Aviation Club became more interested in aviation and understood its importance in the future. The club program consisted of movies, speakers, and field trips.

The purpose of the Baton Club is to teach the fundamental twirling movements. All persons in the club had to have a baton and be interested in showmanship as well as possess a sense of rhythm. Mr. Campanella is the advisor.

Mrs. Emenheiser helped the members of the Bible Club become better acquainted with the general outline of the Bible. To study general Biblical facts, and to enjoy learning about the Bible they used Biblical games.

The Bridge Club is a social club designed to teach beginners the basics of bridge playing. Mr. Dale Millar, the club advisor, believes that this club will enrich the students' adult life by providing opportunities for a more enjoyable use of leisure time.

Under the leadership of Mr. Crumbling, the members of the Checkers Club learn the rules of the game as well as play the game. At the end of the school year a checkers tournament was played to determine the champion checker player. The Checker boards were made by a junior high shop class.

The Cheerleading Club is one of the most popular among the junior high girls. Every club period is spent in the gymnasium, where the members are taught cheers by the cheerleaders. Miss Langhart is the sponsor of the club.

The Chess Club is composed of twenty-eight junior high boys and girls, who are interested in learning how to play chess. During the first half of the school year Mr. Millar, the instructor, taught the members the rules of the game, and during the second half chess tournaments were held.

The Chess Club in senior high is sponsored by Mr. Pottorff. As the players' skill increases he teaches them standard plays. A chess tournament was played after the rules, and plays of the game had been learned.

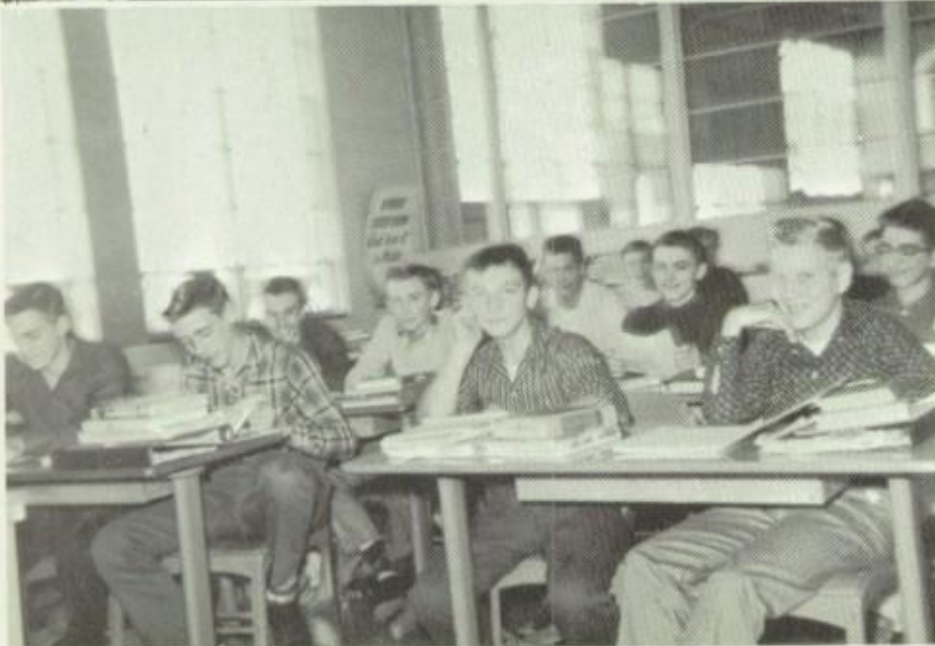

The Coin Club is one of the new clubs in the senior high. Mr. Ritchey, the sponsor, introduced to the members of his club the history of coin making, and aided all interested persons in their coin collections.

The purpose of the Crossword and Spelling Club is to become good spellers by having spelling bees, and to solve various types of puzzles. Mrs. Shenberger is the sponsor of the club.

The Dramatics Club provided an opportunity for junior high students to develop an interest in dramatics by reading, and participating in plays. Mrs. Brown is the sponsor.

The Future Farmers of America is a club which prepares farm leaders for the future. Parliamentary procedure along with other important items of business were discussed. The club is affiliated with the State and National FFA. Mr. Shuman is the sponsor.

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America is to acquaint the prospective teacher with the basic requirements of entering the teaching profession. Mr. Hays, the instructor, led discussions on the various offerings of nearby colleges.

The purpose of the Fly Tying Club is to teach the members the unique way of out fishing them all. Along with hunting, and fishing films the club took small field trips. Mr. Snyder, the sponsor, also had shown them specimens of his own work.

The Gymnastic Club is for boys only. The activities of the club included stunts, tumbling, highbar, parallel bars, springboard, and trampoline. Mr. Beck is the sponsor of the club.

The Golf Club is designed to acquaint the novice golfer with terms, layout of golf courses, equipment, and fundamentals of the golf swing. In the spring Mr. Berger took the members of his club out on the baseball diamond to practice the golf swing.

The Hobby Club is organized to promote an interest in hobbies among the junior high students. Mrs. Gamble, the sponsor, said that personal pleasure, recreation, and self-improvement had been obtained.

The purpose of the senior high Hobby Club is to afford those having a hobby an opportunity to practice that hobby during the club period as well as to share hobby experiences with other members. Mr. Cooper is the sponsor of this club.

The purpose of the Journalism Club is to train non-staff members to become eligible for the Beacon positions. The training is for the literary staff, not the business staff. Mrs. Sheffer is the sponsor.

The purpose of the Junior Beacon Club is to conduct activities designed to assist the Beacon. During the club periods the members wrote articles concerning the students in junior high, which Mrs. Oaks, the sponsor, submitted to the Beacon staff.

The purpose of the Red Cross Club is to conduct activities designed to assist the local Red Cross. Favors for parties at veterans hospitals, and other services which the local chapter required were furnished by the club. Mrs. Fritz is the sponsor.

The purpose of the Knitting Club in the junior high is to instruct beginners, and to help complete projects. The club is very popular among the junior high girls. Mrs. Richardson is the sponsor.

The senior high Knitting Club is similar to the one in junior high. Mrs. Waltman taught her members how to read knitting instructions, and how to make their own sweaters, hats, stoles, and socks.

The purpose of the Library Club in junior and senior high is to teach the members how to mend, and prepare books for the shelf. Mrs. Prim, the instructor, selects several from each club to help her during study periods.

The Magicians' Club is open to tenth grade boys interested in magic. The students learned the rudiments of magic, and made "pocket Tricks" which were performed before the group. A collection of tricks was started. Mr. Francis Miller is the sponsor.

Metal Craft and Jewelry Club deals with the art metal area of metal working. The club members made such items as rings, bracelets, and dishes. This club, under the direction of Mr. Richardson, was an interest to boys, and girls.

The Military Science Club is a popular club among the junior high boys. A study of the philosophy, history, techniques, methods, logistics, and weapons used in conducting both hot and cold war operations. Mr. Bingamin is the sponsor of this club.

The Model Club is concerned with all kinds of models. The members of the club constructed models of planes, ships, and hot rods. Auto's were the most popular especially the "custom Cars." Mr. Grove is the sponsor.

The objects emphasized in the Nature Club were insects, birds and plants. The members of the club went on field trips with their advisor, Mr. Harmon. They also made charts, and diagrams on their observations.

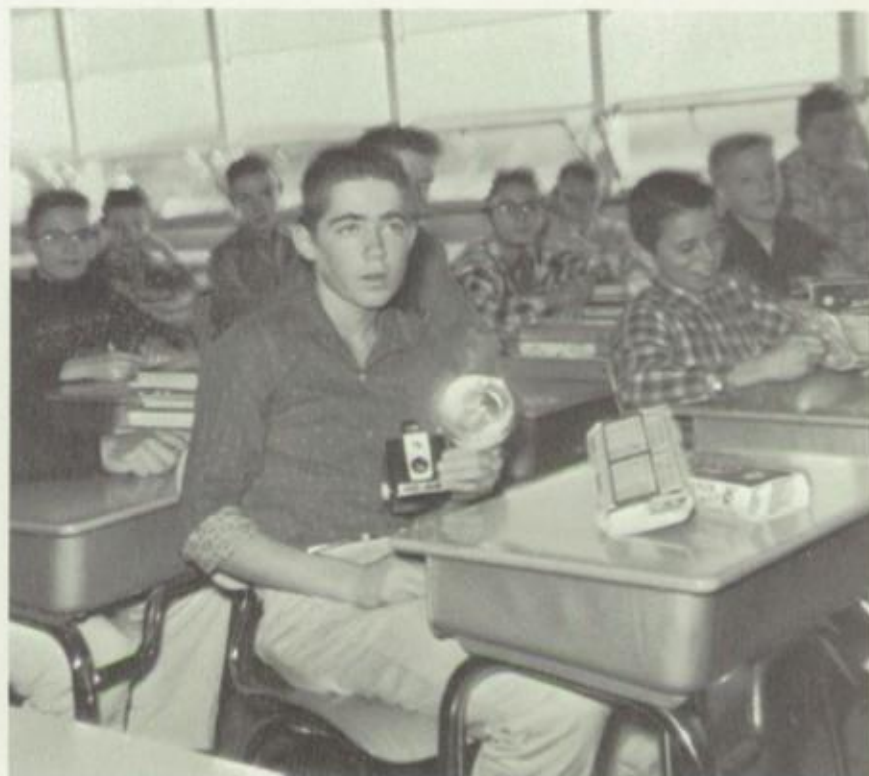

The Nursing Club is designed for those girls who are planning to enter the nursing profession. A study of problems and situations confronted by nurses was part of the program. Miss Jane Strayer, the school nurse, is the advisor.

After securing pen pals from several sources, the Pen Pal Club distributed information about geographical locations, learned a few appropriate foreign phrases, and exchanged ideas for effective correspondence. Mrs. Fauth is the sponsor.

The objectives of the Photography Club are to learn to use the camera, and to understand how it works. They also learned basic darkroom techniques and the art of photography. Mr. Loveless is the advisor.

The Public Appearance Club emphasizes the importance of good grooming, and manners. This was accomplished through demonstration, discussion, and use of visual aid materials. Mrs. Dorothy Moore is the advisor.

In the Rules and Officiating Club the members were taught the rules and techniques of officiating in various major sports. Mr. Burd is the advisor.

The Rules and Officiating Club in senior high is similar to the one in junior high. The members of the club assisted in intramural sports and gym classes as officials. Mr. Leber is the sponsor.

The members of the Russian Club learned the Russian alphabet, and the pronunciation of Russian. Some conversation in Russian was attempted as well as some of the customs.

The Science Club was geared to the special interests of students interested in the physical aspects of science. Physics, chemistry, and earth science served as a guide for choosing this club.

The purpose of the Social Dancing Club is to teach those in junior high the fundamental steps in social dancing. Mr. White, and Mr. Garland are the advisors.

The purpose of the Speleological Club is to explain the safe methods of cave exploring, map reading of various caves, and to help the members become familiar with the formations of the caves. Mr. Kehm is the advisor.

In the Travel Club filmstrips of foreign countries, cities, and states of America will be shown. The club members collected materials of states, and nations by writing to embassies of foreign countries and to travel agencies. Mr. Rhorbaugh is the sponsor.

The Travel Club in senior high is very similar to the one in junior high. The members had discussions on various points of interest and guest speakers spoke on trips they had made in foreign countries. Mr. Winemiller is the club sponsor.

The purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y Club is to promote school spirit. They did this by making posters and by going to all school activities. Miss Kressman is the sponsor of this club.

Under the able direction of Mr. Campanella our band met every Friday during home-room period. Band membership was open to any junior or senior high school student having the ability to play a band instrument. There were ninety-four members.

Whenever weather permitted the band performed at the football games. Dressed in their new blue and white uniforms, the band was a great morale booster to the team and fans. The marching band also performed in several local parades. The concert band performed in the "Night of Music," and several school assemblies.

Linda Bear was the capable head majorette of the Dallastown Area High School Band. Her first year was very successful, and she is looking forward to next year. Randall Strayer was the assistant conductor, and Sandy Glatfelter was the Sergeant of Arms.

Under the direction of Miss Corrine Harpel, the Senior High Chorus met every Friday during homeroom period. The chorus consisted of tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade students. They sang for several assemblies, and for the annual Night of Music.

In addition to the choral work done by the Music Department, there were several individuals whose music records added prestige to the chorus. They were Doris Markey, Lorna Raver, Kathy Williams, Helen Rojahn, Donald Fitz, and Thomas Ness, who were selected to represent Dallastown Area High School in the annual Pennsylvania Music Association District Chorus Festival held at Ellitsburg.

Another part of the Choral Department consists of the Junior High Select Chorus. This chorus also is under the direction of Miss Corrine Harpel. The chorus is made up of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students. The chorus has participated in several assemblies, and in the "Night of Music."

Anyone from seventh, or eighth grade could try out for the Junior High Select Chorus. The ninth grade students had to be members of the ninth grade chorus class before they could try out for the chorus. The president of the chorus is Dallas Smith, vice president is Faye Brenneman, and secretary is Maxine Lentz.

The Yearbook is compiled and edited by the Senior Class. It consists of the activities that have taken place throughout the past year.

It is a protracted, tedious job to put the Yearbook together, but there is a lot of fun while working at it.

The Yearbook staff is divided into two parts — the literary and business sections.

The literary staff, with its editors and their associates, prepare the literary work for publication. The business staff, with its managers and their associates, complete the business transactions for our yearbooks.

Each staff is under the direction of an advisor. The yearbook has a business, art and a literary advisor. The advisors are teachers who are always on hand to help us with a difficult matter requiring settlement.

About once a month a representative from the yearbook company visits our yearbook meetings and helps us with our problems. He always administers to us when there is any doubt in our minds about a certain problem.

The yearbook is stifling but everyone learns by doing. We felt we were doing something to add variety and worth to our school days — and we were.

The Editorial Staff of the Year Book is the Imaginative and Creative arm of the Year Book. However, another important arm is the Business Staff.

The Business Staff must find an income sufficient to pay the expenses of the project. Its members must sell subscriptions, sell advertisements, get patrons and distribute the book to subscribers. To do the above tasks they enlist the aid of the class membership.

The advisor compiles a budget or estimate; secures bids on photography, printing, and binding; and secures and signs contracts.

This staff has been cooperative and efficient and it has been a pleasure to work with them.

On April 10 and 11, 1959, a group of talented and capable juniors gathered together and made possible the production of "Mother Is a Freshman." The play, by Raphael Blau, was under the direction of Mrs. Elaine Brown with Brenda Ahrens as student director.

Family bickering occurs when Abigail Abbott, an attractive young widow chose to attend the same college as her daughter Susan, who was in her second year of college at the time. The single phrase uttered by Susan, "How can I have a mother who's a Freshman!!" started off a chain of events which resulted in three riotous acts of quite good entertainment. Members of the cast were: Beverly Krouse — Mrs. Abigail Abbott; Carol Tipton — Susan; Barry Shearer — Dean Gillingham; Mike Rupprecht — Prof. Michaels; Diane Ferree — Mrs. Miller; Brenda Short — Sylvia; Dorothy Cox — Bunny; Linda Smith — Helen; Sandy Gladfelter — Carrie; Jo Shearer — Clara; Joyce Hartman — Marge; Nelson Leader — Bobo; Llewellyn Ehrhart — Jack; Earl Howett — Howie; John Schrader — Bill; Mike Jackson — Steve; Fred Myers — Rufus.

The cast and Brenda Ahrens present flowers to Mrs. Brown at final curtain call.

A romance develops between Abigail and Professor Michaels.

BEACON

A First Class Rating was awarded to the 1958-59 Beacon by the Pennsylvania Scholastic Press Association during the annual conference held in October, 1959. This was the first year of publication for The Beacon; therefore, this award is a challenge to this year's staff.

Dallastown area High was host to the annual York Adams Scholastic Press Association's Conference on April 25, 1960.

A Sweetheart Dance at which a King and Queen of Hearts were crowned was sponsored by the Beacon on February 13, 1960.

Subscriptions have increased considerably. The Beacon published six times during the school year, has the slogan, "A Beacon in every home."

Since there was no journalism class this year, new staff members were trained in the journalism club.

"Southern Plantation" was the theme of the first Jr.-Sr. Prom to be held in the lobby of the new Dallastown Area High School. Eight o'clock on the evening of May 22, 1959, juniors and seniors assembled for three wonderful hours of southern enchantment.

A plantation setting of picket fences, magnolia blossoms, and stately pillars was climaxed with an exquisite center fountain. Darky servants helped to complete the scene.

King Blaine Karr and Queen Patricia Deardorff were crowned by Terry Tyson and Donna Ness, the resigning couple. The queen's attendants included Martha Kohler, Ina Warner, Faye Conway, Thalia Tyson, and Jean Worley. Barry Keckler, Laverne Romesberg, Bruce Rost, Carter Myers, and Lynus Strayer composed the king's court.

After refreshments were served in the cafeteria, the "plantationers" returned to their dancing. Finally at eleven o'clock, as all good things must come to an end, Walter Carl's Orchestra played "Good-night Sweetheart" which served as the grand finale of a perfect evening.

Our annual magazine campaign was held in October. Mr. Harold Schriver, the sales representative of the Curtis Publishing Company, once again urged the students to sell magazines for our school. A goal of $6,500 was set, but we missed it by $150. Fred Dentler and Barbara Barshinger were chosen as co-captains. Mr. Crumbling took care of sales in the junior high, and Mr. Leber took care of sales in the senior high. Mr. Hayes was the financial secretary.

The high salesman of the whole campaign was Donald Bosserman. Gary Alcorn and Julie Bushey were second and third high salesmen respectively.

Profits received from the magazine sales will be used to support the Beacon, the Student Council, and athletics; to purchase visual aids and other equipment which may prove worthwhile in the educational program of the school.

The Senior play became a reality on December 3 and 5, 1959, as the class presented "Too Many Girls," by James Stone, under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Richardson.

The three-act-farce centered around the romantic lives of three young couples: Henry Hudson, a confirmed bachelor since his love affair with a radio commentator, Georgia East, and a young orphan girl, Spring Sanders; Doctor Harold, Henry's doctor and Laura, Henry's sister; and Pete, a young college boy and Helen, a pretty niece of Henry's. The supporting cast included the girl next door, Agnus; the scheming and hilarious Dulcy, also Henry's niece, a woman of the world, the maid, Dora, and Henry's secretary. Those portraying the characters were the following:

Henry Hudson	Earl Howett
Spring Sanders	Joan Raver
Helen	Linda Smith
Pete	Nelson Leader

The gridders of the D-Town Area High School this year experienced a successful season, winning 5 and coming out on the short end just 4 times. The Wildcats, coached by Rafe Nabors, assisted by Sherdell Snyder and Murry Davidson, grabbed second place in the tough Laurel Conference finishing second only to a powerful Littlestown team which went through its league season undefeated and unscored upon.

"The Cat's" victories came over Kennard-Dale, West York, Central, Susquehannock, and York Catholic. The Naborsmen were defeated by East

Pennsboro, Red Lion, Littlestown, and York Suburban all in thrilling games.

This year we placed two gridders on the All-Laurel Conference team. They were tackle Wayne Bupp, and end Mike Rupprecht. Other seniors finishing their respective careers for the Blue and White were, Mike Noll, Dick Snyder, Fred Innerest, Ken Godfrey, Barry Hengst, Willard Germick, and Earl Howett.

Applause to Coach Nabors and his staff for a job very well done.

... An Ovation ...

Sept. 12 — Enola — The D-Town Wildcats lost the initial game of the season to Enola 26—0. It was the first for Enola who finished the season unbeaten and unscored upon.

Sept. 19 — Dallastown — The Wildcats were again tamed by Littlestown 25—0. D-Town was unable to move the ball and found themselves punting all afternoon. Their farthest advance came on an interception by Williard Germick who raced to the four, but D-Town was unable to score.

Sept. 26 — Dallastown — D-town gained its first victory of the season by trouncing Kennard-Dale 25—0. The blocking of kicks and recovering of fumbles proved to be the game. Hengst, Howett, Rupprecht, and Noll scored for the Wildcats.

Oct. 3 — Red Lion — D-town loses to Red Lion 31—12. The battle was nip and tuck until the last quarter when Red Lion broke the game open with 19 points. The Wildcats tied the game in second quarter on an interception by Rupprecht and a Tyson-Noll pass combination for 51 yards.

Get that man!

Oct. 10 — Dallastown — York Suburban remains undefeated by beating Wildcats 20—0. The Trojans scored two touchdowns in last two minutes of first half. D-town's farthest penetration was to eight yard line. Woltman, for the visitors, scored on a 70 yard run.

Oct. 17 — Central — D-town spoils Central's Homecoming by defeating Panthers 25—7. Central scored in the first period but from then on it was Dallastown. Scoring for the Wildcats were Noll and Hengst who each scored twice.

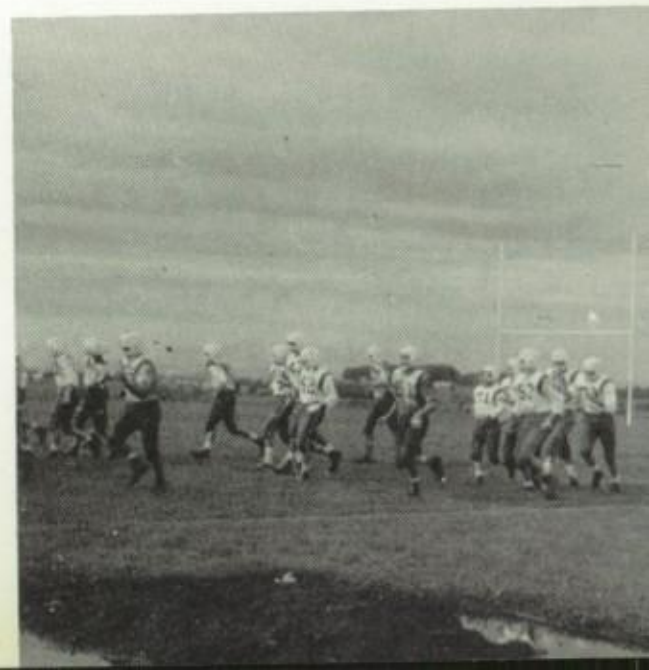

Oct. 24 — Dallastown — Wildcats defeat West York Bulldogs 13—7 on field covered with mud for Homecoming victory. In the closing seconds West York fumbled on our 5 Yard line and Bupp recovered.

Oct. 31 — Susquehannock — D-town's Wildcats squeezed out a victory over the Susquehannock Warriors 12—6. It was the third straight win for the Wildcats. Scoring for D-town were Germick and Tyson.

Sideline Strategy?

A little wet!

Nov. 6 — York Catholic — Again D-town edged out their opponent, York Catholic, 7—6. Catholic scored first but was unable to connect their first attempt at the extra point was blocked but Catholic was off sides. The next time Hengst's aim was true and this score proved to be the winning point.

This year, Dallastown Area High School was represented for the second time by a junior high football team. Hats off to coach Ron Grove for a fine season. The Junior Wildcats, with mostly all inexperienced players came out with a 2 won 3 loss and 1 tie record. Although they didn't have a winning season, they gained very much needed experience, which will definitely prove profitable to them next year.

Jan. 5, 1960 — Glen Rock — D-town lost their initial league game to Susquehannock, 61—60. The Wildcats were leading 39—29 at half time, but lost it in the second half. Tyson was high scorer with 20.

Jan. 8, 1960 — Dallastown — Red Lion easily defeated the Wildcats here 78—44. The Lions decided the outcome of the contest in the second quarter. High scorer for D-town was Rupperecht with 16.

Jan. 12, 1960 — Dallastown — D-town won it's first league game over Northeastern 72—57. At one time the Wildcats led by as many as 20 points. High scorer again was Rupperecht with 19.

Jan. 15, 1960 — Dallastown — D-town was upset by the Rams of Kennard-Dale 56—44. We were outscored in every quarter of the game. High for the Wildcats was Germick with 16.

Jan. 19, 1960 — West York — D-town upset the West York Bulldogs 65—58. The game was close, but then the Bulldogs couldn't keep the pace set by Dallastown. High was Tyson with 20.

Jan. 22, 1960 — Eastern — Eastern had an easy time defeating D-town 84—49. They were never in danger as five of their players hit double digits. Again Tyson was high with 21.

Jan. 26, 1960 — Dallastown — D-town erupted for 30 points in the fourth quarter and defeated Dover 78—52. Dover proved a stubborn foe early in the game. High for the Wildcats was Tyson with 21.

Jan. 29, 1960 — Dallastown — D-town edged a stubborn York Suburban 44—43. The winning points came on two foul conversions by Tyson. Tyson was high scorer with 16.

Feb. 2, 1960 — Central — Central broke into an early lead and never trailed as they beat D-town 72—55. Four of Central's players had 12 or more points. Rupperecht was high with 18.

Feb. 5, 1960 — Dallastown — D-town avenged its first loss to Susquehannock by defeating them 72—43. The Wildcats had four men scoring double digits with Germick being high with 20.

Feb. 9, 1960 — Dallastown — D-town again topped Southwestern 82—60. The Mustangs led at the half but were run into the floor the second half. Tyson and Rupperecht each had 23.

Feb. 12, 1960 — Red Lion — The Lions again defeated D-town 68—50. The game was very close except for the second quarter where Red Lion outscored us by 10 points. Again Rupperecht was high with 20.

Feb. 16, 1960 — Dallastown — D-town pulled a great upset over Spring grove 66—50. The defending champions were stunned by the Wildcats fast-breaking. High for D-town was Tyson with 22.

Feb. 19, 1960 — Kennard-Dale — Terry Snyder's jump shot in the last three seconds gave D-town a win over the Rams 55—53. The Wildcats had a large lead but lost it in the last quarter. High scorer was Rupperecht with 14.

Practice makes perfect.

Coach, Dale Miller. Get that ball, boys!

This year's team under the coaching of Dale Miller had a 7 win and 6 loss record with three games remaining to be played. The team is now in fourth place one game behind of York Suburban. Kennard-Dale is the league leader. The team's victories came over Susquehannock twice, Red Lion twice, Dover, Central, and Eastern. Their defeats came at the hands of Kennard-Dale twice, West York, Northeastern, York Suburban, and Spring Grove.

This year is the first year D-town had a cheerleading squad of ten girls. There were five girls composing the Senior Varsity and five girls on the Junior Varsity squad. The ten girls cheered together at football games and the Varsity squad cheered at the Varsity basketball games and the Junior squad cheered at the Junior Varsity games.

Composing the Varsity squad are Beverly Krouse, captain, Brenda Short, Deanna Saylor, Linda Mitzel, and Jo Ann Huson. The five Junior Varsity cheerleaders, are Diane Sherrick, captain, Nina Masters, Linda Zimmerman, Audrey Hoke, and Theda Tyson.

Almost any Monday night would find these girls in the lobby practicing. These practices have paid off since we have this fine squad representing Dallastown Area High School.

This year Dallastown Area High School had a girls' volleyball team for the first time. They had a poor season with a 1 win 17 loss record. The girls' only victory came over Spring Grove after eleven consecutive losses. They won 15-0, 15-6, 15-5.

D-town placed three girls on the All-star Team No. 1. They were Norma Zarfoss, Doris Gladfelter, and Doris Wise. The No. 1 team defeated the No. 2 All-Star team. Lost through graduation were Norma Zarfoss, Doris Gladfelter, Judy Sindlinger, and Darlene Stump.

This year's practice begins early.

ROW 3: Joe Strobeck, Ivan Stump, George Druck, Paul Myers, Mike Rupprecht, Blaine Karr, Billy Bashore, Gary Geesey, Billy Davis, and Willard Germick.

The Senior High Boys had another successful season under the coaching of Charlie Leber. D-town's season wins were over Spring Grove, Susquehannock, West York, Red Lion, Central, and Eastern. Their only defeat of the season came at the hands of Kennard-Dale by the score of 47-44. In the York County Meet the Wildcats placed third. Luther Eberly won a first place in the discus throw and Tom King captured first place in the 220-yard dash.

D-town's mile relay team, comprised of Don Miller, Tarry Grim, Blaine Karr, and Willard Germick, also were very much in the winning ways during the season. They won first at the Sunny Sheppard Relays, a second at the York County Meet, and a second at the District Track Meet. The team captured a third at State's.

Members of the team lost through graduation were Blaine Karr, Tarry Grim, Laverne Romesberg, Ronald Smeltzer, Barry Keckler, and Gary Strickler.

The Senior High Girls topped off their season by winning the York County Track Meet held at Small's Athletic Field. The girls scored a total of twenty-two points.

The girls took first place in all events except the 220-yard relay, where they placed second. Winning for D-town in the 50-yard dash was Doris Gladfelter. Ruth Ann Dehoff captured the baseball throw while senior Norma Zarfoss took the basketball throw.

Members of the team lost through graduation were Norma Zarfoss, Ruth ann Dehoff, Doris Gladfelter, and Judy Sindlinger.

The Junior High Boys and Junior High Girls both took part in the York County Track Meet, with the boys tying for fifth place and with the girls not being able to score. The boys' season wins came over Susquehannock and Red Lion, and they were defeated by Central and Spring Grove. The girls only meet was the York County. There were many good looking prospects for next years Senior High teams.

This year's team ended its season in fourth place in the Southern Division on the York County Scholastic Baseball League with a 4 win 6 loss record. The boys were coached for the first time by Hal Berger. The team's victories came over Kennard-Dale and Lower Chanceford, beating each team twice. They were defeated twice each by Red Lion, Susquehannock, and Eastern. The team gained much experience through their six losses and should do better next year.

Lost through graduation were Gary Strickler, Carter Myers, Lynn Smith, Jim Weitkamp, Barry Keckler, and Bruce Rost.

... the Competition ...

April 14, 1959 — Dallastown — The Wildcats lost their initial league game to Eastern, 6—3. D-town was able to score in the second, fifth, and seventh innings, but these were not enough.

April 17, 1959 — Dallastown — D-town lost its second league contest in a thriller to Susquehannock 5—4. Down two runs, going into the last of the seventh, the Wildcats scored once and had men on when the final out was made.

April 21, 1959 — Lower Chanceford — The Wildcats defeated a stubborn Lower Chanceford team 3—1. D-town had trouble at the bat only collecting three hits. The winning pitcher was Lon Weaver.

April 24, 1959 — Fawn Grove — A fourth inning grand slam homer ruined Barry Shearer's shutout victory over Kennard-Dale. The Wildcats won 8—4. Shearer allowed only three hits while the Wildcats had nine.

April 30, 1959 — Eastern — D-town loses again to Eastern by 6—2. Again it was a story of not hitting the ball. Gary Strickler had two hits one of them being a triple.

May 1, 1959 — Dallastown — Red Lion out hit, out fielded, and most of all out scored D-town 16—6. Carter Myers and Strickler had five hits amongst them.

May 5, 1959 — Glen Rock — Again D-town was unable to find the hitting range and lost to Susquehannock 4—1. Although we out fielded them, they had nine hits while we only had two.

May 8, 1959 — Dallastown — D-town finally broke their jinx as they collected twenty-one hits and defeated Lower Chanceford 22—8. The winning pitcher was Laymon Mortorff.

May 12, 1959 — Dallastown — D-town again defeated Kennard-Dale 9—5. The wildcats again collected eleven hits to the visitors four. The winning pitcher was Dave Leber.

May 18, 1959 — Red Lion — D-town gave Red Lion a rougher time than before as they lost 5—2. The Lions scored four in the second which proved to be the winning runs. Milner Dise had a three-bagger for D-town.

April, 1960

Dear Diary,

With this, my final entry, I realize that this is the beginning rather than the ending of a chapter of life. The perplexity of the future is instilled within, yet we are ready for the future and whatever anxieties it may hold.

Before we go our separate ways, I must first give credit where credit is due. To those members of my staff whose assistance was given, my hat is off. Also to Mr. Cooper, Mr. Wengmiller, and Mr. Thomas who paved the road so that we could travel it easier, I extend a grateful thank you. The publisher of our annual deserves much gratitude for the patience he displayed with us. Mr. Neil Tayer, the representative of the company, who advised and aided me and my staff, is to be commended for his invaluable services. Our photographer, Mr. Blatner, whose job was one filled with constant problems, also deserves our appreciation. And last, but not least, to every member of the Class of '60 who helped in any way to make this edition possible I again say, thank you.

In these few words, I hope you can sense that my job was not accomplished alone. The task of editing is, of course, one of responsibility. All those who aided me made my job a lot easier. Finally, through all our efforts we have the finished products. And so, it is with this feeling of accomplishment and gratitude that I choose to close our yearbook.

Sincerely yours,
Brenda Ahrens
Editor-in-chief.

P. S. - We almost forgot Mr. White's homeroom; however, you can see we didn't.
